

- ◆ Corporate MC
- ◆ Conference Facilitator
- ◆ Keynote Speaker on Memory
- ◆ Comedy / Magic Stage Show
- ◆ Electronic Trivia Host
- ◆ Roving Magic

Kerry Domann or his alter-ego, "Nigel" is a multi-talented performer and truly one of Australia's unique and best value for money entertainers.

It's Nigel's amazing ability to use his memory that really sets him apart. This unique combination of business savvy, comedy, memory and interactive magic, must be seen in action to be believed. It's sure to leave your audience intrigued and entertained.

Kerry Domann's Business Background

Apart from his work as an entertainer, Kerry has over 20 years experience in corporate business industries. The last eight years in the financial markets industry as a Quantitative Analyst, the nerds of any trading floor and Interest Rate Specialist. Prior to this he worked in IT as a network supervisor, programmer and system analyst and spent over five years in superannuation. On top of this he has a Bachelor of Applied Science (Mathematics), a Masters of Information Technology and a Masters of Business - Applied Finance.

So why is this important? It means Kerry is a unique professional, particularly as a conference MC or facilitator as he can bring his extensive working experience and knowledge to any conference. Professional performers with such diversified experience in both business and entertainment are rare - just another reason why securing Kerry or "Nigel" for your event makes good business sense.

*Excellent, fantastic, extremely entertaining!
It's very hard to please everyone, but Nigel did!!*

Australian Macadamia Society

He was superb and totally stunned the audience with his memory powers.

Lehman and Associates

.. unforgettable ..

Nigel - MC and Conference Facilitator

Nigel is a popular MC who will keep your event rolling smoothly. For an evening function through to a multi-day conference, Nigel is fast becoming the preferred compere for savvy event organisers.

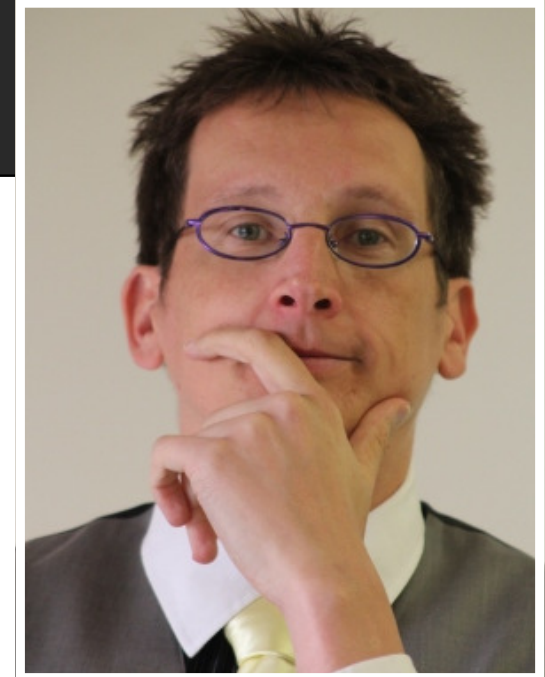

Whether you need a formal facilitator or a light and entertaining MC, Nigel will adapt to suit. Nigel is a knowledgeable and professional business facilitator, and combines his entertainment skills to get the event's message across in an entertaining and thought provoking way.

Nigel - Keynote Speaker and Corporate Memory Course

With the amazing ability to memorise and recall up to 300 names after just a brief meeting, Nigel teaches the theoretical and practical methods he's studied and refined for improving memory and in particular remembering names. Nigel's memory techniques can be presented in a workshop or summarised in a 45 minute keynote presentation. His light hearted and interesting manner makes this informative session lots of fun and it's suitable for ALL industries. Your delegates will be eager to test their new skills remembering names of friends, colleagues, customers and associates.

Anyone from students, sales people, managers and CEO's can benefit, gaining skills to improve business and enrich everyday life. A comprehensive workbook file is provided to the organiser to be customised with your company logo and distributed to delegates - an invaluable tool to refer to after the session.

Both Today Tonight and the Midday show have been amazed and astonished with Nigel's incredible abilities. Nigel will make your conference or seminar an unforgettable event!

Nigel has been the MC at three major REIWA conferences involving more than 1,400 people. As MC, Nigel is fun, vibrant, enthusiastic and most importantly, keeps everything together and on track. Nigel is very conscious of being both entertaining and professional .. as he guides the conferences from start to finish with an attitude and expertise that goes the extra mile. REIWA has no hesitation in recommending him as the right person to motivate your audience, get their attention, keep them amused and to ensure that your conference keeps good time and sticks to its agenda.

REIWA

.. unforgettable ..

Nigel's Comedy Stage Show

Nigel's stage show is a side splitting mix of comedy and magic. The interactive show can be adapted to suit a wide range of audiences and event styles. As the finale, the audience will witness Nigel's amazing ability to recall the names of up to 300 people after only a brief introduction. Truly unforgettable! He's currently one of only a handful of people in Australia to demonstrate this ability, and the only one who has adapted it into a highly entertaining show.

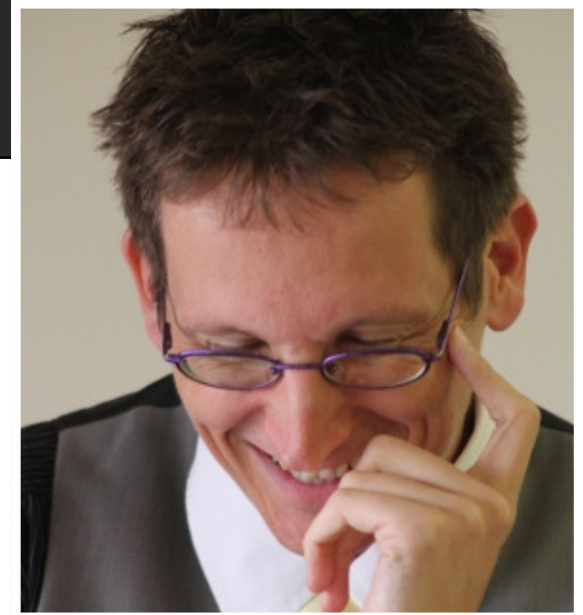

Nigel's Trivia Show

Nigel has created a new version of completely automated trivia, collecting data from hand-held wireless 'buzzers'. The concept enables you to incorporate tailored company information, making every event completely unique to the audience. Reinforce your conference message, promote sponsor's or ask fun questions involving staff or the company departments as well as general trivia fun.

The presentation on screen is also tailored with the use of company colours and logos, sponsor's messages and any other information the client requires. As an experienced corporate entertainer Nigel will MC and entertain at your event as well as present the tailored electronic trivia segment.

Nigel's Roving Magic

Nigel's infectious personality makes this close-up magic very entertaining. This is the perfect way to keep guests occupied before dinner or during a conference.

“ Nigel was one of the important ingredients in the success factor of our event. His humour and professionalism was spectacular, and the crowd loved him. As an MC for a 4 day event, he was very professional, and a delight to work with. He went above and beyond the call when it came to his role and he made my job and that of my team so much easier. We threw many things at him, several last minute, and he came up shining each and every time. Nigel was quickly accepted as part of our (work) family, and was well received by everyone. The rapport he was able to build with our staff, and our conference guests was second to none.

The Professionals

